What's on the CLEP

Analyzing and Interpreting Literature

The Analyzing and Interpreting Literature examination covers material usually taught in a general two-semester undergraduate course in literature. The questions are based on passages supplied in the test. These passages have been selected so that no previous experience with them is required to answer the questions. The passages are taken primarily from American and British literature.

The Analyzing & Interpreting Literature CLEP exam consists of

- 80 QUESTIONS
- 90 MINUTES To complete the CLEP exam
- $80 EXAM FEE
- 50 PASSING SCORE

Test takers that pass the Analyzing & Interpreting Literature CLEP exam will receive 6 (six) semester hours of college credit.

There are 2 calculations performed to get the final score. The raw score is first calculated based on the questions answered correctly. The raw score is then converted into a scaled score that ranges from 20 to 80. The final scaled score is the score that appears on the score report.
